3. Ongoing Business

A. City Updates (Michael Jones)

Michael provided updates on the following:

- a. Proposed playground upgrades: circle bench recommended by Commission ordered for Thrasher Park.
- b. Status of marketing recommendations made at February meeting: website undergoing major updates, so recommended updates to park names, search engine, etc. won't be made for awhile.
- c. Status of city negotiations with church to purchase parcels expanding Johnson Dean: City made an offer and is waiting for counteroffer. Len recently applied for a Federal grant that would potentially pay for this purchase – award notice is pending.
- d. Status of Swenson-Brown development project: Staff's inventory project is expected to be delivered in June, 2026 and will be used to develop a 5-year forest management plan for the space.

B. City Hall Parking Lot & NPAC Collaboration (Tixie Fowler)

Tixie reported collaboration with NPAC confirmed, and that NPAC Chair Liz Thompson has been working directly with Len Housely for input re site selections and feasibility of providing lighting, etc. Tixie noted that Liz will draft a proposal for art installations for PGT review prior to submitting it to Council for approval.

C. Piedmont Pathway Feasibility Update (Heath & Lineback)

The Heath & Lineback consultants shared the second draft of the Piedmont Pathway Feasibility Study and invited feedback. Board members discussed details for over an hour and made several informal recommendations which the consultant will incorporate into the next presentation they are scheduled to give to Mayor and Council.

4. New Business5. ADDITIONAL INPUT AND/OR DISCUSSION NOT OTHERWISE ADDRESSED BY THIS AGENDA

Terry presented the proposed framework of a checklist that will better align the UDO and city planning, clarifying expectations, regulations, and “next steps” for developers and city staff.

6. Adjourn: Next regularly scheduled meeting to be held on Thursday, April 17, 2026.

ACTION ITEM: Motion made by Scott Leslie at 6:37 pm; seconded by Kassie Diehl. Motion passed 4 – 0.
